MESSAGE #1340 from the Blessed Mother January 29, 1998

My daughter, In order for growth, one must accept what God is teaching them. One must not deny their weaknesses or make excuses for their behavior. One must try hard each new day to become more like Christ. If one disobeys God or gives up, then one opens the door for Satan.

This is the time to prepare your soul, not to go backwards. For once you fall, it is much more difficult to get up again. Once you give up, you lose strength and then you become more focused on yourselves. So, today I ask that you humble yourself before Our Lord so that evil cannot enter. I ask that you be more willing to accept your faults, but then change, change your ways. I ask that you go to God to be consoled, for then you will see your true self, for God will place upon your heart, the truth. God will open your eyes as to whatever is causing you to fall. God will strengthen you each time you come to Him, for God knows how weak His children can be.

God knows, so please quit hiding your true feelings and share all that is troubling you. Share daily so your heart does not become heavy. Share daily so you do not have to carry your burdens alone. I promise you, you will then feel much better about yourself and all feelings of hurt and unworthiness will leave you. It takes a continuous effort on your part. It takes a heart that is truly open to doing God's Will. It takes time to pray and to come to know God, for without prayer, you will keep giving in to your will. Without a desire to please God, you will not be remorseful for your sins. Without a true devotion to my Son, you will take the easier road.

I am reminding my children because I see many of you struggling. I see how unhappy many of you have become. This not only pierces your heart, but it also pierces mine. For I see many trying to hold on, but because of rebellion and pride, many eventually let go. Because of one's selfish desires, they allow themselves to go backwards.

I say to each of you, quit pretending you can do it on your own, for you are weak without God, and without God's help you are destined to fail. Without total submission to God, you will not surrender. Without love in your heart, you will blame God and others for your faults. Without love, one seeks revenge. Without discipline, you will not change or be more honest with yourselves. Without God's grace, you become your own enemy.

So, today I pray for each of you. I pray that you seek God so you do not return to your old ways. I pray that you listen to God instead of yourselves. I pray that you surrender to God and ask daily for Our heavenly assistance. I ask this of you my children because I feel your pain. I ask this of you because I am concerned for you.

So please take heed to this message or there will be no growth. Take heed now or you will not be strong enough for the battles yet to come. In order for this army of mine to be strong, you will have to obey and march in unison. So, join hands and pray, pray from your heart, for then God will listen and respond to your requests. God will help each child who comes and takes refuge in His heart. So come, come to God so you receive the proper guidance.

I am with you, my children, for a mother never loses hope or gives up on her children. Remain close to God and please never let go of my hand, for then you will have peace, and love will remain in your heart. Amen.

MESSAGE #1375 from Jesus March 1, 1998

My child,

Some crosses will be harder to bear than others, but what you must always remember is that I am always near. Remember this so you never become discouraged. Call My name and I will come and give you encouragement. I will wipe your tears and I will help you through all trials.

The pain that you feel will seem immense at times, but that is all part of carrying your cross. Through this pain, I will be able to work more powerfully through you. Through your suffering, many souls will be saved. It is when one understands the pain that I, your Lord, endured for you, is when one will be more willing to carry their cross. This is why, My child, I have given you a heavier cross. No one on this earth will have to suffer as I did, but each of you will have to carry your cross. None of you will ever have to walk alone if you believe and turn to Me for help, for I, your Lord, am ever so near and I will never abandon you.

My Mother is also present on this earth to help each child who accepts her motherly assistance, so take her hand. Be not foolish, for she is your mother who will shower you with her grace. She will guide those who listen and who respond to her messages. She will protect and nurture those who take refuge in her Immaculate Heart. She will intercede for you when you come to her with your requests, so be wise and take her hand and she will help you on this earth. Be more pure, just as My Mother, so you do not pierce her heart. Be more accepting of her mission that My Father has asked her to do, for then you will be led closer to Me, instead of deceived.

My Mother's messages have become longer because she so often has to repeat herself, but they are that of truth and concern for you. They are very teaching because so many do not know how to love. They are informative because many do not follow true teaching. They are very loving, yet at times firm to wake her sleepy children. Her heart is always open, waiting for each child to take refuge. She does not deny any child who comes to her, for her love is deep for all her children.

I have come to remind you that her time is almost up on this earth, so be more attentive and do all that she is teaching you. I have come also to warn you that those who pierce her heart will have to answer to Me, for she is My Mother who is ever so near to Me. Many will deny My Mother's grace. Do not allow them to place doubt upon your heart, for they do not understand My Mother's role on this earth. Instead, share your faith and be firm on your beliefs, for many of you know that she is the Mother of God and a mother to each of you. She is here to help those who take her hand.

I ask that you respond to Our requests so you remain on the path that will lead you to Heaven. You will then have peace and joy and you will stay strong in your faith. You will stay strong because you will be guided each new day.

I am your Merciful Lord. I am here for each one of you. Just believe and keep your heart open, for then My words will live in you.

MESSAGE #1582 from Jesus September 30, 1998

My child,

I am Jesus, so please write as I speak to you. Please write because there are still many who are not listening to Me. If you let fear enter your heart, instead of writing My words, then these words that I give you cannot be relayed across this world.

My Mother's time is almost up and I feel pain for those who have refused her assistance on this earth. I feel pain each time someone rejects her. I feel pain because many will not be prepared for all that is coming their way due to sin and selfishness amongst Our children.

My child, because you feel Our pain it is understandable that you want to give up, so I sympathize with you, but I also need to be firm so you stay focused on what we are telling you. Each time you suffer for Me, souls are saved. Each time you write Our words, you are given strength to endure all trials on this earth. Each time you write all that is relayed to you, My Heavenly Father is pleased, so do not hesitate when My Mother and I come to you. Do not be afraid, for you are protected on this earth. Do not think that all will be easy on this earth, for you have been given a heavier cross. Those who seek glory on this earth are not suffering for Me. So, My child, continue to suffer for Me, for through your suffering many more souls will be saved.

Do you now understand, My child, all that I am telling you? When I show you My wounds, don't turn away. Believe that I endured them because of My love for each of you. If you turn away, then you will not feel the pain that I have for those who are living in sin. You have been chosen to relay Our words, but in order for My Mother and I to speak through you, you must feel Our pain. In order for change to happen, man must listen and respond to all that I am teaching you.

In time, My Mother's messages will be very explicit so more are directed to safer ground. If you become fearful or doubtful, then the enemy will discourage you. I need you strong and healthy, so I am asking you to spend more time with Me. I need you rested so your mind is clear and free of all the distractions of this world. I need you to turn to Me instead of your friends, or you will not be able to endure all that We are telling you. My son who has been chosen for you will believe, for he too will see the pain that you will have to go through. He will know that these are serious times and that man will have to listen and repent of their ways.

This time of grace will not last. This time of mercy is running out. Sin has become widespread and if man does not soon amend his ways, many more earthly changes will occur. The wicked will not be spared if they do not repent when they see their soul. They will have but little time to make atonement for their sins. This time will not last, so please listen and do not let go of My Mother's hand. She is gathering as many children as she can for the battles yet to come.

So be faithful, My child, and remain loyal to Me. These times are urgent because sin has polluted much of this earth. My Mother will soon show you Heaven, for this will give you strength to endure all suffering. I have said 'yes' to your petitions, so now believe as they unfold.

I love you, My child, for I love each child unconditionally. I am Jesus, your Merciful Lord.

MESSAGE #1632 from the Blessed Mother December 2, 1998

My daughter, If more of Our children prayed, they would be content with what they have instead of always wanting more. If one truly spent time with Jesus, they would not need so much material wealth to give them happiness. Their happiness would come from God and they would be given much joy. Interiorly they would have peace because their desires would change.

My children, are you still searching for happiness or have you come to know Our Lord? Has your prayer life changed or are you still ignoring God? Do you take Jesus with you wherever you go or are you choosing to walk alone? You will know by your actions, for if you are peaceful, only love will flow from your heart. If joy remains in you even when problems arise, then you are truly coming to know Our Lord.

Those who spend time with God will remain peaceful and calm through all trials. Those who take time to listen to God will be given much wisdom. They will know how to react in any given situation, for God will teach those who listen and who obey His commands. God will give each child the strength needed not to give in to temptation if they allow God to form them.

But those who do not listen or who do not spend time with God, they will not be given the direction they need. They will not know how to get up when they fall, if they keep refusing God's grace. Many will suffer if they don't take heed to the Gospel now. They will suffer without a personal relationship with God. For many it will be too late if they don't repent or start making some changes now.

I am reminding my children today, just as any good mother would do. I am reminding you because many are still trying to do it on their own. Many are refusing God's grace because they are not cleansing their soul. Many keep falling because they are not coming to Mass. Many do not want to give up their worldly ways because they have no desire to change. Many are waiting for their loved one to change instead of working on the areas in their life where they are weak.

Please children, believe that God wants to come to know you in a personal way. God wants to help you make some changes in your life. God has a plan for each of you, but it is up to you to listen. If you keep waiting for others to change, then God cannot work through you. If you keep blaming others for your actions, then change will not occur in you.

Today, I ask that you stop looking at others faults so that you can better yourself. I ask that you listen more carefully when God is talking to you. I ask this of you because God wants to use you in a powerful way. Each of you have weak areas and until you believe this, you will not be honest with yourself. You will just keep blaming others for the way you are acting.

It takes discipline, my children, and a humble heart, for pride and lack of humility will only pull you further away from God. It takes effort on your part and a willing spirit to do what God is asking of you. It takes patience and time because change does not come easy, but I promise you, your life will change if you surrender, surrender to Our Lord. For it is not until you surrender that God can work in you. Without total surrender, God cannot work completely in you. God will not force His way through those doors that you keep closing on Him, so it is up to you to keep your heart all the way open.

Because of my love and concern for you, I have come once again to remind you, so please be more cooperative so that God can help you. Be humble children and ask God to help you in those areas that are most difficult for you. Don't be ashamed to turn to God, for God is so forgiving. God is pleased when you come to Him so don't be afraid, just believe in your heart that God can help you change.

When God is firm with you, it is because He loves and cares for you. When God does not give you everything you want, then believe that God knows what is best for your soul. Believe, my children, that God's love is unconditional. Believe, so you come to God more often, for this is the only way change will start happening in you. This is the way because you cannot hear God if you keep ignoring Him. This is the way the truth will be made known to you, for without the truth, change will not occur in you.

So today, I want each of you to know that God and I love you so very much. Each of you are special and so very dear to us. We love you, that is why we are here to help you, so please accept my motherly assistance and Our love for you. Please accept, for then much light will be given to you. Darkness will be removed and peace and joy will enter your heart.

Now, go forth as true believers so that God can work in each of you. Amen.

MESSAGE #1846 from the Blessed Mother October 12, 1999

Souls, many souls need your prayers. Many in Purgatory have no-one to pray for them. Many suffer, so please pray each time God allows you to hear their voice. Remind all my children to pray, pray daily for the poor souls in Purgatory. Prayers, my daughter, will help those who are in Purgatory. My daughter, tell the world that you have seen today so more will pray for those souls who have been forgotten. Each prayer will help these souls so that one day they can be in Heaven.

My daughter, please offer your suffering to our Lord, for through your suffering many more souls can be saved. Please do not hold back your tears, allow your tears to flow. Today you feel my pain, but remember always, I will hold you and help you through those difficult days. When one says yes to God, one will never have to carry their cross alone. Our children must understand that when one relays our words, they must also see and feel our pain. If one did not suffer, then one would not be able to share our heavenly words.

My daughter, many will not be able to understand this message until they accept their cross. If one keeps refusing to pick up their cross, then souls cannot be saved. It is through one's willingness to suffer for Jesus, how souls can be saved from the fires of hell. God knows how much each of you can endure, so please do not be afraid to pick up your cross.

Please do all that you can for Jesus no matter what others think of you. God will always be your strength, but it is up to you to be true soldiers for our Lord. It is up to you to go forth and make the Gospel known. It is up to you to teach others what is morally right. It takes a true devotion to Christ to be persecuted for living your faith. It takes love, love in your heart in order to witness and be more like Christ. It takes humility and discipline to be true servants for our Lord. It takes sacrifice and commitment to become true followers for Jesus Christ.

In order to be purified on this earth, you must use your hands and voice for Christ. You must not be prejudice, you must love all your brothers and sisters. You must be willing to help those who are furthest away from God. You must pray and then do whatever God is asking of you. If God is asking you to stay home with your children, then you must obey. If God is asking you to live more simply, then you must, must obey. If God is asking you to spend more time with Him, then you must give up your pleasures.

Each of you must listen, listen to your heart. Each of you must learn to be silent so you can truly hear God. Each of you must learn to trust in order to do the Father's Will. Each of you must live your vocation no matter how difficult it is for you. Each of you have a job to do, so you must listen and obey God. You must not give in to your desires. You must be willing to take the more difficult road. You must be willing to be persecuted, for this is thirst to your soul. Each tear and trial is how you will be strengthened. Each "yes" to God is how you will be led closer, closer to Him.

Today, I ask that you be more willing to pick up your cross on this earth, for this is how you will be purified and strengthened for each new battle. If you choose the easier road, your heart will become lukewarm. If you choose to live in sin, then you will suffer when it is time to leave this earth. Heaven is for those who believe in God and who are willing to pick up their cross on this earth. Heaven is for those who live their life for Christ.

So please, dear children, do not be fooled by those who do not believe in Purgatory or hell, for many, many suffer for refusing to do God's Will. Many, many suffer when they harbor hate and bitterness in their heart. The time is now, dear children, to be purified on this earth, so please respond with your whole heart and do what God is asking, asking of you. Please believe that God is love and He knows what each of you can do. Amen.

VISION OF PURGATORY

This morning, Oct. 12, the Blessed Mother told me she must show me Purgatory. I said, "Why Mother?" and she said, "Because many souls need your prayers, especially those who have been forgotten." I feel much pain today and I feel as though I am not able to talk or share with anyone, what I saw.

This is what I remember. I felt as though I was walking in fog. It seemed darker in some areas. People were in groups with no walls separating them. I could barely see the first group, but when Blessed Mother put her hand up, there seemed to be light coming from her hands. The people's faces were as if they were stunned or terrified. They said to me, "Pray for me," many times. They looked dirty and very sad. I did not see any children in the first three groups that I saw. The Blessed Mother told me there are many different levels in Purgatory. The air was cold, yet I could see flames on two walls. The Mother said these are the people closest to hell. She said they feel much pain because they cannot do penance for their sins. She said those who repent are spared from the fires of hell. She said prayers are needed so more repent. Through prayer many repent at the very end, so she said one must pray for those souls furthest away from God. When we walked away, it became dark again and I saw another group of people. Each group would say, "Pray for me." The Blessed Mother said, depending what level they are at determines how long they stay in Purgatory. For some, she said it's seconds; for others, it's months and then years. The Blessed Mother says she comforts those who are in Purgatory. She prays everyday for these souls. I saw many groups and it became less dark, the further we walked. All felt pain, though, because they wanted to be with God. The air and surroundings were very misty and foggy, unlike Heaven.

Through this, I learned how important it is to do penance for my sins and I now know that I must pray throughout the day for all souls in Purgatory. If one could get but a glimpse of their faces, one would pray more for them. I know the Mother showed me Purgatory for a reason and I hope all faiths will realize that there is a Purgatory. I saw much more this time and I pray I will never have to see it again.

MESSAGE #2000 from the Blessed Mother July 8, 2000

My daughter, Be at peace with those around you. Do not let Satan disturb you. Pray more so you stay strong, strong for Our Lord. Each time you pray, peace and joy will be given to you. It is so important that all my children pray throughout the day so their focus remains on Jesus. It is so important that my children pray so that evil does not linger in their home.

Today, I must remind my children because many wait too long to pray. Many are forgetting to talk to Jesus throughout the day. If you truly love God, then you must not wait to come to Him. Throughout the day, stop what you are doing and kneel, kneel before a Crucifix. Ask God to help you through life's daily trials. Ask, ask for assistance so that you never try to walk alone. In order to stay on the right path, you must rely on God. You must not wait to turn to God, you must pray throughout the day. You must include God in all that you do. Yes, God must become first in your lives. You must allow God to be your refuge and your strength.

If you truly want to live these messages, then you must take time throughout the day to turn to God. You must not wait until the end of the day to pray or ask for direction. The love of Jesus must always flow through you. In order to be an example for others, you must shine and light the way for others. Without prayer and willingness to turn to God, it is impossible to stay focused on Our Lord. In order to shine and be joyful, you must carry Jesus with you. In order to stay prayerful, you must become more disciplined. You must let go of your desires and be more willing to increase your time to be with Jesus. So please remove the busyness from your life. Take time to build your relationship with Our Lord.

Take time to do what God is asking of you instead of only doing what you want to do. Don't allow your plans to step ahead of God. Allow God to be your director so you are guided in the proper way. God cannot use you in a powerful way if it is you who seeks control. Be humble children and let go of your pleasures and desires. Be patient and prudent and believe that God will always be there for you. Don't rely on yourselves for answers, for God knows what is best, best for your soul. Don't become upset when you are not given an answer, for again I say to you, God knows what is best for each of you. God knows how much each of you can handle, so please trust and do not step ahead of God.

Be obedient children, for then you will not become discouraged. Remain true to Our Lord and persevere no matter how tired you become. Each new day will have its trials, but through your faithfulness and obedience, joy and peace will reign in your hearts. I am pleased to tell you that these messages will continue because of your obedience and willingness to save souls. It is a day to give thanks, thanks to Almighty God. Many messages have been given to you, so please continue to be grateful. Please continue to listen and live these messages. Please continue to gather and pray for those who are refusing to take heed to these heavenly pleas. Prayer and your obedience is how conversion will happen.

Many more miracles will happen if you continue to pray and go forth in Jesus' name. Soon a shrine will be built for you, and many, of all faiths, will gather if you remain loyal and obedient to Our Lord. So please remain prayerful and be willing to serve, serve Our Lord. Remain obedient to true teaching, for then much goodness will happen. Work, work together, for then more will gather and pray the Rosary.

I am Your Heavenly Mother and I am truly here for all my children. So be at peace now and thank God that I am still able to be here with you. Each message is truly a gift, so give thanks and praise to Almighty God. Amen.

MESSAGE #2057 from the Blessed Mother October 27, 2000

My daughter, Jesus knows what is best for you, so do not look to others for consolation. Go directly to God and share your desires, your pain and suffering. God will comfort you, just as I, and will help you through each new trial.

So many today leave God last because of fear and lack of trust. So, today I ask that you begin your day in prayer. I ask that you keep your hearts open so that God can enter more fully. I ask that you turn to God throughout the day so that He can guide and direct you. This is the time in which God has allowed for each of you to truly come to know Our Lord. So be wise and spend time, time with Jesus. Be wise and allow God to plan your day so that you do not become too busy for God. Ask God to help you remove those distractions which prevent you from truly spending time with Our Lord.

Please, dear children, listen to what I am telling you so that your relationship deepens with Our Lord. It is God whom you must turn to if you truly want to be happy on this earth. It is God who knows what is best, best for each of you. Until you truly come to know this, peace cannot enter your hearts.

Practice today, all that I am teaching you so your love for Jesus grows inside of you. I want each of you to shine, but this will not happen unless you spend quality time with God. By allowing Jesus into your heart, your desires will change. You will come to know the true meaning of love if you surrender your life to Him.

My Son has so many Graces which He wishes to give to you, but it is up to you to accept and receive them. It is up to you to trust in His merciful love. It is up to you to rely on God and to do what He is asking of you. If you do the opposite of what God is telling you, then He cannot enter in the way that He desires. So be obedient children and take quiet time and then listen, listen to your heart.

Be willing to follow Jesus by picking up your cross. If you keep refusing to pick up your cross, then you are separating yourself from my Son, Jesus. Believe, dear children, that Jesus will be with you through your suffering. Jesus will help you carry each new cross if you allow Him to. Jesus is truly there for each of you, so please do not be afraid of the cross, for this is how you will be strengthened. Through sacrifice and acceptance of each new cross, your love for Jesus will grow. Through acceptance and willingness on your part, you will come to know God's love for you. Give yourself totally to Jesus, for then I promise you, love and truth will reign, reign in your hearts.

Now, please remain faithful to Jesus. Do not allow the world or your desires to pull you away from prayer. Take time for prayer and study His Word. Keep your focus on Jesus so that you can be guided and taught the truth. Do not fight God's ways or love for you. Pray and allow God's Will to be done. This is the way to Heaven, so please respond now and love Jesus with your whole heart. Allow Jesus to dwell in you so that peace, joy and love can fill your hearts.

I am your Heavenly Mother and I ask God's blessings upon each of you now. Go now in peace, for I am ever so near to you. Amen.

MESSAGE #2244 from the Blessed Mother November 23, 2001

My daughter, Tell my children to love, love Jesus with their whole heart. Tell them not to be afraid of Jesus, for He truly loves, loves each of you. It is time now to truly open your hearts and allow His Divine Presence to dwell in you. Today, I ask that you trust, trust in Jesus and love Him as He loves you.

A response is needed if you truly want to come to know Jesus in a deeper way. A response is needed, so please focus on God and not on the things of this world. Please keep your hearts open, for God cannot enter a closed heart. When you pray with all your heart to Jesus, you receive His love and peace because you are glorifying Him. When your heart is closed, you will only become distracted and your focus will not be on Jesus. So this is why I must remind you to give praise to God before you begin your prayers.

Give thanks for all trials and blessings and trust that my Son truly hears your prayers. Do not be doubtful, for God is truly with those who come to Him with a trusting, open, heart. Do not become discouraged, for your prayers will be answered in God's most perfect time. God knows what is best for each of you. God knows what is best, best for your soul.

I see so many children giving up today, because they feel all alone. Many come to me, and tell me that God is not listening to them. I say to each of you, put aside your personal desires and seek the desire of my Son, Jesus. Do not dwell on what will make you happy, instead allow God to mold you. Accept all that God is doing in your life, for this is how God prepares you. God must heal you first interiorly, in order to become strong soldiers for Christ. Without inner healing, there would be pride instead of humility. You must offer everything up to my Son so that you can be purified. You must allow God to be in control of your life, and let go of your desires.

So today I ask that you be patient children, so that God can form you. I ask that you rely on God, instead of others, so you can be taught in the proper way. I ask that you give up your pleasures, so you have more time to truly hear what God is teaching you. I ask that you be more accepting of each new cross, so you persevere with faith and fortitude. I am truly with you, when you pray to Jesus with an open heart. I am with you, so please do not lose hope.

Be grateful, grateful children and give thanks and praise to Jesus, each new day. Much joy will then be given to you, and love and peace will surely dwell in your hearts. An open heart is what is needed, so please respond and do what I am asking of you, each new day. Please respond and pray with your heart, and tell Jesus each new day, how much you truly love Him. My prayers are with you, so go forth now as God's loving children. Amen.

My daughter, During this time Jesus is very close to you, so stay strong and be glad that you have been chosen to write and relay our words. Stay strong, so that this peace and joy of knowing Jesus does not leave you. Each trial will strengthen you so your heart stays open to whom God sends to you.

I say to all my children, accept your trials with joy. Accept each new cross and believe in God's mercy and love for each of you. Today I ask that my children have confidence and hope in Jesus. I ask that you trust more and believe that God will help you through those difficult days. God will give you the Grace and strength to endure each new cross. God will not abandon those who believe, and trust, and who turn to Him each new day. Now please rely on God and be dependent on Him. Give to God all that is troubling you so that you do not lose hope or confidence in our Lord. Let go of all fear and anxiety and trust in His unending love for each of you.

I want all my children to be joyful, so please respond and give your life to Jesus. Respond and accept God's love, for then fear and worry will not enter. Keep your focus on Jesus and do not worry about tomorrow. Do not worry, for God will be with you each new day. God will give you the Grace necessary to carry your cross today. So be at peace, and know that I am with you so that you never lose hope, or confidence in Almighty God.

I am here to direct you. I am truly here to light the way, so you stay strong through all darkness, trials, and storms. Go forth now with joy in your hearts, and let this love of knowing Jesus shine, shine through you. Amen.

MESSAGE #2271 from the Blessed Mother January 30, 2002

My daughter, I come to you today, to remind you that these messages are for the world. They are for all my children, for each child has a soul. Each child must prepare their soul so they are ready to meet Almighty God. Each child must live the Gospel and give their life totally to God. Each child must turn to God and build their relationship with Him. This is why it is so important to write and relay my words.

All must wake up and amend their ways. All must come to know God's love for them before it's too late. All must allow God to dwell in them in order for change to occur in their lives.

Please persevere, my daughter, and have hope in my Son, Jesus. Remain faithful and write when I come to you. Remain strong in your faith through all persecution. In time each child will have to answer to God. Those who do not accept my visits here will one day come to know the truth. Many will have great sorrow for judging those who have been asked by God to make the Gospel known.

God has asked many in these times, because so many are living in sin. So many are denying God's Grace because they are worshipping false gods. Many are not sharing their wealth and have turned their back on their brothers and sisters. So many souls are in danger because they are choosing to live their lives without God. If mankind would accept my assistance, they would understand why I am here to make the Gospel known.

My daughter, I know that your job is not an easy one, but remember I am always with you. I am guiding you so you remain obedient to God. Satan can do no harm to you, for many Angels and Saints are protecting you. You are guarded not only during the day but also at night. Each new day, give thanks to God for all you have received and for all He desires to give to you. Give thanks to God, for then your heart will not become heavy.

I say to all my children, let go of your fear and trust, trust in God. Believe that God will not abandon those who turn to Him. Believe that you are each so dearly loved and that God has a job for each of you. God has opened many doors because of your prayers and response to these messages, so please, continue forward and live your faith. Continue on and remember you are not fighting this battle alone. St. Michael the Archangel is on guard protecting each of you. All of Heaven will assist those who invite them into their home. There is nothing to be afraid of, so please, please do not doubt.

Now, I ask that you pray to God with all of your heart. I ask that you pray for all your brothers and sisters so more take part in saving souls. Now, please have hope in Jesus and rejoice. Rejoice, for His mercy is endless and He truly loves each of you. Turn to Him now, seek His mercy and do not fear. Trust in my Son. Do not fear. Amen.

MESSAGE #2273 from the Blessed Mother February 4, 2002

My daughter, In the end there will be victory, so please continue to make the truth known. Continue forth, with love in your heart, no matter how dark it becomes. Prayer will protect you, so pray more and keep your focus on Jesus. Continue to love and be merciful, for then the enemy will flee.

The time will come and each person will be held accountable for his unloving actions and deceitful ways. Each person will see their soul and they will know just how they offended God. Yes, this time will come, so strive hard to imitate Christ in all that you say and do. Strive to be like Jesus each new day. Love all your brothers and sisters and pray, pray for those who are choosing darkness. Prayer is so important because so much evil lingers in this world.

I ask today, that each of you have confidence and hope in Jesus. Look to Jesus as your source of peace, for He is truly merciful and compassionate. Depend on God when you feel alone and you will be given the strength and Grace needed to persevere. Depend on God and do not try to carry your cross alone. Rely on God and His loving assistance.

Now, I ask that each of you go forward each new day. I ask that you trust in God and know that we are with you. I ask that you love God and accept His love for each of you. I am truly here to direct you to His truth. I am truly here in a special way to direct you to Jesus. Be at peace and believe now that the time is coming and all will need to be prepared.

In time you will be free of pain and suffering, so cherish this time and be true to God and to yourself. Cherish this time and do all that you can for Christ. Cherish this time and go forth and live, live the Gospel. Amen.

My daughter, These messages are for all my children, so please continue to write and relay my words. Continue to serve Jesus so more see light instead of darkness. Continue, continue forth and I shall help you through all trials, persecution and suffering. Jesus will be by your side, so do not be afraid of those who do not understand my role on this earth. This time is so important, for many will suffer if they refuse to repent and amend their ways.

The way is forward, so please, please, dear children, be brave soldiers for Christ. Witness your faith and your love for Jesus wherever you go. God is asking each of you to live the Beatitudes and to obey each commandment. God is asking each of you to pray and forgive and to be kind and loving towards each other. Those who refuse to do this are not true followers of Jesus. Those who do not have peace in their hearts, are relying on themselves instead of God.

Today, each of you must ask yourself; "is there true peace and happiness in your life?" Each of you must examine your conscience and then turn to God. You must be truthful if you truly want to be happy. You must be willing to let go of your ways and give your life completely to God. You must truly understand that it is impossible for change to occur on your own; you need God's assistance and a true desire to change.

Each of you have areas to work on, so be honest, humble children. Be honest so that I can assist you on this earth. Be honest now, for in time, you will each see your soul. Woe to those who are trying to change others, but are refusing to change themselves. Woe to those who are hiding their sins, for how they will suffer. Woe to those who are living in sin and who are hiding behind closed doors. These doors will be opened when God's Justice prevails. Man will no longer be able to deny that sin exists.

I am here, your Heavenly Mother, to prepare the way so you are ready for times to come. I am here now, so please accept my motherly assistance. Accept my love and concern that I have for you. Take hold of your lives and amend your ways now.

Allow my Son to transform your lives. Allow Jesus to bring you closer, closer to His Most Sacred Heart. Take time to be with Jesus so that you truly come to know His mercy and His love. Receive my Son so you have the Grace needed to move forward.

Again I say to you, respond, respond now. Return back to my Son through the Sacraments and give your life totally, totally to Him. This time that I can be with you is moving quickly, so begin now and do not wait to convert your lives. Do not wait for man's approval, live these messages, live them now. Do all that you can to make the Gospel known. Do all that you can and seek, seek the Kingdom of God. Amen.

MESSAGE #2519 from the Blessed Mother August 25, 2003

My daughter, Please remain faithful and do what God and I are asking of you. Allow my words to flow from your heart so more come to know our Dear Lord, Jesus. I am truly with you, so please persevere so more souls can be saved. Each time you pray, give thanks to God for the many blessings He has bestowed on you. Give thanks to God and give all honor and glory to Him. Without God, healings would not occur. Without God working through you, souls would not be saved.

So please tell all my children to be thankful for all that God is doing in their lives. Tell my children to start their day giving thanks and praise to Almighty God. All must be appreciative for the many blessings God has given them. All must be appreciative in order for God to truly work through them.

To be merciful, you must be a thankful people. To be merciful you must love God more than your desires. You must allow God to be in control of your lives. You must allow the Holy Spirit to work through you so that God can use you in a powerful way. You must not allow Satan to tempt you in choosing the easier road. You must be strong in your faith and rebuke Satan and all His followers. You must avoid sin and be willing to suffer for Christ. You must be true servants for our Lord and take the path that will lead you to Heaven.

Today, I want each of you to be thankful for God's guidance, mercy and love for each of you. I want you to be thankful so you do not abuse this time of saving souls. I want each of you to be more thankful and use those gifts God has given you. By truly being thankful, souls, many souls will be saved.

Now, please join hands and work together and be appreciative and do your part for the salvation of souls. I am truly with you each time you pray. I am truly with you when you give thanks and praise to Almighty God. Now please, please remember, to receive God's mercy you must be open to God's love. You must faithfully do your part and do whatever God is asking, asking of you. Amen.

MESSAGE #2583 from the Blessed Mother February 3, 2004

My daughter, God is love. God is merciful and He truly understands all that you are going through. You will feel better in days to come, so be at peace and know that We are with you. Be at peace and continue to offer your suffering for those who do not believe in God's love and mercy.

Those who are choosing to walk alone do not have peace. They do not have peace because they do not turn to God for consolation. They do not feel God's love because of their refusal to embrace Him. How difficult it is for one to walk alone.

Jesus must be at the center of your life. He is a patient and compassionate God who loves you very much. Each of you need to go before Him with confidence and trust, trust in your hearts. You need to trust in His love for you and ask, ask for His assistance. You must understand that you are weak without God's help. You must understand that when you turn to God, you receive His grace. Nothing can be accomplished on your own. Each time you pray, my Son is truly with you. Each time you come to Mass, Jesus gives Himself to you when you receive Communion.

My Son has given you the gift of life and He desires that you imitate His ways. Please desire Jesus and turn to Him each new day. Rely on God and not yourself if you truly want peace and happiness. Let go of your ways and thirst, thirst for Jesus. My Son waits for you to come to Him, but very few ask, ask for His assistance. So many today continue to crucify my Son when they choose darkness.

It is time now to truly live this message so that you can come to know my Son's love that He has for each of you. Will you respond wholeheartedly or will you deny God's love? If you choose the path that will lead you to Heaven, my Son will protect you. He will save you from darkness and He will truly console you.

I plead with my children today to rely on God. You have been truly blessed by God to receive words from Heaven, so please, please respond today. Change your ways and follow Jesus and believe, believe dear children, in His love for you. Believe and conform to His ways which are that of love and truth. Amen.

MESSAGE #2586 from the Blessed Mother February 11, 2004

My daughter, Continue to be obedient to God and do what He is asking of you. Continue to write and share all that I am teaching you. Continue to share from your heart and live each day for Jesus.

Each new day, pray the Rosary and pray, pray for your Most Holy Pope. Pray that more of my children will take heed to the messages that are being given all around this world. The truth must be made known, so tell my children to go forth in love and witness their faith. Tell my children not to be afraid to witness their love of knowing Jesus. If each child does their part in saving souls, conversion will happen. More will come to know Jesus in this time of God's love and mercy.

I ask that each of you trust in my motherly intercession, for I am truly here to assist you. Each time you pray the Rosary, I am truly, truly there for you. Each time you turn to Jesus, I am ever so close to His Most Sacred Heart. I am truly present wherever there is true devotion to my Son, Jesus. I truly love all my children and I hold you ever so close to My Immaculate Heart. I love my Priests, even those who are refusing my motherly assistance. I want each of you to remember, you are all my children and I truly, truly love you.

Today, give thanks to God for allowing this time for me to be with you in such a personal way. Amen.

MESSAGE #2687 from the Blessed Mother October 20, 2004

My daughter, Be at peace and know that I am with you. Offer your pain and your suffering for unbelievers. God has chosen you in a very special way, so believe that He will help you with each cross that is given to you. Believe, so that you never lose hope or confidence in Our Lord.

I ask today that you continue to pray and fast in reparation for those souls who continue to reject God's love and mercy. I ask that you pray and fast for my beloved Pope who truly suffers so much for his flock. Many Priests need your prayers so they stay strong, strong for Jesus. So many are persecuted for making the truth known.

A true shepherd is one who does not compromise with the world, but who uses his hands and voice to make the Gospel known. Each child is called to live by God's Ten Commandments and to live a holy life. Each child must obey God and be humble, loving servants.

Dear Priests, do not let a day go by to do good work for Our Lord. Pray every day for your flock, for so many are on the wrong path. Pray and be an example to them so they see Christ in you. Be loving and embrace each child that comes to you. Make more time to pray with your flock. Make more time to be in the confessional. Make time, for you have been chosen by God to lead the faithful forward. Let go of your set time and be full-time Priests. Conversion cannot happen if you turn souls away. Conversion cannot happen if you set your own hours to serve Our Lord. The door of your heart must always be open for your flock. God will be your strength if you truly, truly trust in Him.

There is no longer time to be part-time Priests, for the earth is trembling now. Many children are living in sin and they need to be rescued before it's too late. The battle is on, so be true soldiers and stay awake. Be on call, for you never know when God might use you to save souls. Be ready and prepared and move when the Holy Spirit leads you. In time, you will each see your soul and at that moment, you will see who you have turned away. You will see just how many wounds you have added to Jesus' Most Precious Body. You will see what God sees when you choose to be lazy.

Time is moving quickly, so do not think that nothing will happen in this time that you are on earth. God's Justice will prevail and due to widespread sin, it will happen very soon. All will need to be in a state of grace, and this cannot happen without a Priest's assistance.

I am warning each of you today, for you each have a soul. You each need to do what God is asking, asking of you. Will you be sleeping? Will you be praying? Will you, dear Bishops and Priests, be truly there for your flock? As your mother, I pray for you. I plead for you, for you are God's chosen sons. Amen.
